PLANS INDUSTRIAL CONFERENCE AND EXPOSITION;
CHUNG-HSING MINING COMPANY BEING REORGANIZED

HEAVY INDUSTRY CONFERENCE TO BE CALLED -- New York Hua-ch'iao Jih-pao, 1 Jul 50

Peiping, 21 June (Hsin-hua) -- The Ministry of Heavy Industry of the Central People's government has announced that a conference of the personnel of the ministry and of the regional governments' departments of heavy industry will be called during the early part of July 1950. The conference will discuss and formulate the 1951 production and reconstruction plans for China's heavy industry.

MINING COMPANY BECOMES JOINT ENTERPRISE -- Shanghai Ta Kung Pao, 7 May 50

The Chung-hsing Coal Mines, among the largest in East China, are now in process of becoming a joint public and private enterprise. The mines are at I Hsien and Tsao-chuang in Shantung.

This company formerly had Japanese capital in it and has been under military control since the liberation. Recent negotiations initiated by the head office of the company in Shanghai with the Administration Council of the Central People's government in Peiping have resulted in the reorganization.

KWANGTUNG TO HAVE PRODUCTS EXPOSITION -- Hong Kong Wen-hui Pao, 11 Jun 50

Canton, 10 June -- Plans are under way in the Kwangtung Provincial People's government for an exposition of industrial and agricultural products. The exposition will include displays of industrial and agricultural processes. The industrial part of the display is to be organized into four sections: publicly operated industry, municipal industry, local industry, and industrial education.

Meetings were held today under the leadership of Huang Hsing-ya and Wu Wan-li, deputy section chief of the Municipal Bureau of Industry and Commerce. The representatives of the various industries decided that one person should be chosen from each industry, to organize an industry committee, and unanimously approved Lo Hung-tuan and seven others to form a standing committee to assemble the products and forward them to the committee before 23 June 1950.

The assembly discussed problems relating to the coming nation-wide industries conference to be called by the Central People's government and decided that each industry should send some material to the conference, including plans for recovery, developmental trends, etc., with special emphasis on definite figures.
